Manufacturer's Description

Sturdy, soft armband designed for comfort and usability with upside-down design for easy viewing of your iPod screen and easy access of your iPod clickwheel.

Why We Like It

Because this sports armband can accommodate both your iPod and a Nike+iPod adaptor. And you can still see both your iPod screen and clickwheel - giving you complete control!

Features

Special upside-down design so you can read your iPod. Minimalist design won't obstruct your iPod or appear bulky. Easily accommodates Nike+iPod receiver. Adjusts to fit almost any arm from 23cm (9") to 37cm (14 1/2"). Soft and flexible armband designed to move with you. Lightweight and comfortable. Cleanable so you can keep it smelling sweet not sweaty. Designed especially to fit iPod nano 2G (aluminium).

What can we say about the amazing Cygnett GrooveRunner sports armband? First of all the armband is lightweight and comfortable. Secondly it still lets you see your iPod screen and have complete access to your iPod clickwheel. In fact, the armband sits the iPod "upside down", allowing you to read the display on your iPod without having to crane your neck!

But the best bit is the fact that the GrooveRunner will also fit the Nike+iPod adaptor without a hint of a struggle! And all these features combine to make this armband truly irresistible!
