

Daily Telegraph latest products > connect

Right grooves

Cygnett's Groove Traveller is a superbly built iPod nano car kit designed to plug into a car cigarette lighter. Playing back your second-generation Nano's song list is as easy as tuning Groove Traveller into any unused FM radio frequency – of which there are plenty in the 87.5-108.0MHz range. The unit has a backlight feature and comes with an adjustable cradle. Simply brilliant.

what > iPod Nano FM transmitter
price > $79.95
from > Cygnett, 9429 2552
web > cygnett.com.au

what > Mini hi-fi system
price > $2499
from > Audio Products, 1300 134 400 web > audioproducts.com.au

what > SCD player and stereo amplifiers price > from $1499
from > 1800 338 439
web > cygnett.com.au

what > Mini USB drive
price > from $20.65 (512MB)

editor > Stephen Fenech 9288 2666
email > connect@dailytelegraph.com.au production > Angela Connell, Cecily Ryan advertising > Terrence Dementiev 9288 3421 page > products compiled by

THE Daily Telegraph

HOW FAT! Meet Bermuda's 120 kilogram spin sensation

WOK ON Top tips for sizzling stir fries

REVEALED The case against accused terror nine

THE SUSPECTS:

PLOT TO BOMB SYDNEY

INSIDE YOU CAN WIN A $10,000 PAY RISE WITH CFM

Daily Telegraph latest products > connect

Right grooves

Cygnett's Groove Traveller is a superbly built iPod nano car kit designed to plug into a car cigarette lighter. Playing back your second-generation Nano's song list is as easy as tuning Groove Traveller into any unused FM radio frequency – of which there are plenty in the 87.5-108.0MHz range. The unit has a backlight feature and comes with an adjustable cradle. Simply brilliant.

what > iPod Nano FM transmitter
price > $79.95
from > Cygnett, 9429 2552
web > cygnett.com.au

what > SCD player and stereo amplifiers

Daily Telegraph
 Connect Magazine
 7th March, 2007